Those who see more, see more opportunities.

Hello,

Creativeworld is the leading trade fair for the international hobby, handicrafts and artists' supplies industry. Here is where your business begins – because only here will you find such a comprehensive range with countless new products, innovations and inspiration.

All market leaders will once again be present in the four major product areas: In Hobby & handicrafts, an array of manufacturers, including Efco, Folia, Glorex, Hobby Fun and Rayer, will be showcasing their offer. Handiwork & textile design will feature Hardicraft, Gründel and TOHO. In Graphic & artists' supplies, you'll find Clairefontaine, Golden, Marabu, Kreul, Kum, Schmincke, Staedtler, Stylex and others. And in Graffiti & Street Art, Ghiant, Molotow and numerous other exhibitors will be there to welcome you.

The Creativeworld Academy with its stimulating workshop atmosphere and the opportunity to try out many new products also offers exciting lectures on various forms of creative DIY.

TO CREATIVELAND

One place. One time. Three fairs!

Are you looking for more ideas and new perspectives? From 2023, Ambiente and Christmasworld will be held at the same time and place as Creativeworld – with an unprecedented array of products and trends.

Discover valuable synergies with Ambiente, for example, in the areas of stationery and school supplies. Or find new product ranges at Christmasworld.

The logo for Conzoom solutions features the text 'conzoom solutions' in a bold, sans-serif font. 'conzoom' is in black and 'solutions' is in white, set against a red background that is partially obscured by a black curved shape on the right side.

Nextrade is now
nmedia.hub.

In future, nmedia.hub (formerly Nextrade) will link online orders from the order and content platform with the world of nmedia EDI ordering. Traders now no longer have to differentiate between two platforms and will be able to manage many of their everyday tasks even more easily in nmedia.hub. Benefit from the additional self-service tools for handling product master data and content.
